

On behalf of P&G's Sales New Hire Network, I cannot thank Andrew enough for all that he has done to accommodate our group! His keynote was a great fit for our meeting, and served as proof that using humor can result in a more engaged audience. Most importantly, he left our group feeling energized, empowered, and motivated to use humor in the workplace to drive productivity and bring a more positive culture to our teams. By far, the best guest speaker I have seen at P&G. His message and delivery went above and beyond expectations, and the feedback shared by our New Hires is reflective of the impact he made. If you haven't already considered "Humor that Works" for your next event – you're missing out. Andrew is an absolute pleasure to work with, flat out hilarious, and will change the way you approach your work and relationships day to day. I have no doubt that Andrew will be invited back by P&G to speak at future events!
